MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2010 question paper for the guidance of teachers

0500 FIRST LANGUAGE ENGLISH

0500/13

Paper 1 (Reading Passage – Core), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

- CIE will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

CIE is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2010 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unorthodox approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the candidate's knowledge and skills demonstrated.

Question 1

This question tests Reading Objectives R1–R4 (30 marks):

- Understand and collate explicit meanings
- Understand, explain and collate implicit meanings and attitudes
- Select, analyse and evaluate what is relevant to specific purposes
- Understand how writers achieve effects.

(a) From paragraph 2 (line 4), explain what the writer tells you about Sebastian's shop. [1]

- It was (really) just a room in his / a house.

(b) Using your own words, explain what the writer says about Sebastian's way of speaking in paragraph 2. [2]

- His voice was very harsh / rough / damaged / grating (1 mark).
- His voice was very loud (1 mark).

1 mark for each point up to a maximum of 2; 1 mark for a partial understanding.

(c) From paragraphs 2 and 3, give two details you have found out about Sebastian's way of life. [2]

- He was a shopkeeper; he owned a vineyard; he made his own wine; he was a landowner; he worked in the open; he grew sweet potatoes (and sold them at the market) / he was a market gardener; he ate Spanish sausage; his wife owned some almond trees; he acted as an estate agent.

1 mark for any point up to a maximum of 2.

(d) Using your own words, explain how Sebastian's mood had changed when the writer and her husband returned at five in the afternoon (line 16). [2]

- He was dejected / upset (1 mark).
- He was cross / angry / looking to blame us (1 mark).

1 mark for each point clearly made in own words up to a maximum of 2; 1 mark only if direct lift of 'disconsolate and reproachful'. If lift of the whole sentence without selecting, award 0.

(e) How had the writer and her husband betrayed Sebastian's confidence (line 26)? [2]

- He thought they had let him down as they had not returned at the time he had expected them to.

2 marks for a clear explanation; 1 mark for a partial understanding.

(f) Explain how the misunderstanding about time came about.

- The writer took five o'clock literally; Sebastian used it more generally to mean 'lunch'.

2 marks for a clear explanation; 1 mark for a partial understanding or a straight lift of 'operating in different time zones' without further explanation.

(g) Explain, using your own words, what the writer means by:

(i) 'miniature fortress' (line 3) [2]

- A very small fortified / well-defended building / castle.

(iii) 'I breathed reverently' (line 43) [2]

- I spoke quietly / whispered with great respect / awe.

2 marks for a clear explanation in own words; 1 mark for a partial understanding.

(h) Choose three words or phrases taken from the whole passage which the writer uses to convey Sebastian's character and attitude. Explain how each of these words and phrases helps to bring Sebastian alive for you. [6]

- Great enthusiasm.
- A tendency to address everyone as if they were standing in the next field.
- He went into a frenzy of activity.
- Disconsolate and reproachful.
- Boomed in hoarse despair.
- Spoke more in sorrow than anger.
- Looked at us morosely.
- Clearly liked to keep his own end (of town).
- Beamed at us and turned triumphantly.

Be prepared to award references to phrases other than those above for which convincing explanations are given. 1 mark for each phrase identified up to a maximum of 3, and a further mark for a clear explanation of the effect. If the same explanation is given for more than one phrase, then reward each quotation, but give only 1 mark in total for explanation. E.g. the phrase 'he went into a frenzy of activity' = 1 mark. An explanation such as 'this suggests that he became possessed with the need to act in an over-active way' would qualify for the second mark. Some candidates may produce better explanations than this!

Question 2

This question tests Reading Objectives R1–R3 (10 marks):

- Understand and collate explicit meanings
- Understand, explain and collate implicit meanings and attitudes
- Select, analyse and evaluate what is relevant to specific purposes

AND Writing Objectives W1–W5 (10 marks):

- Articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined
- Order and present facts, ideas and opinions
- Understand and use a range of appropriate vocabulary
- Use language and register appropriate to audience and context
- Make accurate and effective use of paragraphs, grammatical structures, sentences, punctuation and spelling.

Mary, the writer, and Willie, her husband, obviously have differing opinions about the qualities of Carlos's house. They spend some time the next morning discussing whether or not they should purchase it and why. Write the words of their conversation.

Begin the conversation as follows:

Mary: It's just what we want; we can make it our dream house.

Willie: It's more like my bad dream house. Did you see...

You should base your ideas on what you have read in the passage, but do not copy from it.

You should write between 1 and 1½ sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting.

Up to ten marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to ten marks for the quality of your writing.

General notes on the task

The most successful responses are likely to show a clear awareness of both the attractive and off-putting qualities of the house and to show an appreciation of the personalities of the two speakers. Less successful responses are likely to lift sections of the original and then either revert to inappropriate narrative or develop into a bad-tempered argument not closely related to the spirit of the text.

Look for and credit an attempt to write in an appropriate register.

Marking criteria for Question 2

(a) READING (Using and understanding the material)

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10.

Band 1	9–10	Uses and develops several ideas, both factual and inferential, from the passage. Consistently reflects the differing personalities of the two speakers and their perception of the house's 'potential'.
Band 2	7–8	Refers to several details from the passage and shows awareness of the personalities of the speakers. There is some appreciation of the differing perception of the house's 'potential'.
Band 3	5–6	Repeats some details from the passage about the house. Shows incomplete understanding of the characters and of the two speakers. Focuses on the question and passage, but uses material simply and partially.
Band 4	3–4	There is some relevance to the question with a tendency to retell the passage rather than focus on the requirements of the question. Makes simple references to the appearance of the house.
Band 5	1–2	May retell the content of the passage or give occasional relevant details. There may be examples of misunderstanding or lack of clarity in attempting to use the passage.
Band 6	0	Very little / no relevance. General misunderstanding of task and passage.

(b) WRITING (Core tier)

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10.

Band 1	9–10	Sentences are fluent and there is a fairly wide range of vocabulary. Overall structure is good and sentences generally follow in sequence. Most full stops are correct and errors are infrequent and minor. An appropriate register is established.
Band 2	7–8	Sentences are correct, though relatively simple. Vocabulary is adequate and correctly used. Structure is generally sound. There are some sentence separation errors and quite frequent other errors, although minor. There are some hints of an appropriate register.
Band 3	5–6	Sentence structures and vocabulary are simple, but meaning is never in doubt. The order is reasonable. Error may be frequent, but it does not blur meaning. There may be an inconsistent attempt at an appropriate register.
Band 4	3–4	The answer is very simply written and there are occasional examples of blurred meaning. The structure can usually be followed. Some error is serious, affecting meaning.
Band 5	1–2	The answer is difficult to understand. The extent of grammatical error seriously impedes meaning.
Band 6	0	The answer cannot be understood.

Add the marks for Reading and Writing to give a total mark out of 20 for Question 2.
