October/November 2017

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 80

---

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2017 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 8 printed pages.

Note 1: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Note 2: Words underlined in the answers to the questions are required for the full mark(s) to be awarded.

Question	Answer	Marks
2	Imagine that you are the stationmaster, Mr Beeching, from Passage A. It is the day after these events. The train was badly delayed because of the snow and you are being interviewed by local radio about the reasons for the delay. Write the words of this interview. In your interview you are asked three questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Can you tell us what the conditions were like yesterday and what effect they were having on the train service?</li> <li>• Why did you not agree with your driver's request for an extra engine?</li> <li>• Can you reassure listeners by telling us what you will be doing to ensure this does not happen the next time that there is a snowstorm?</li> </ul> Base your interview on what you have read in Passage A, but do not copy from it. Be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points. Begin your interview with the first question. Write about 200 to 300 words. Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing. General notes The most successful responses are likely to give a convincing account of the situation and Mr Beeching's concerns with keeping the trains moving. There will be a sensible and convincing attempt to convey the tensions between the driver's perspective and that of Mr Beeching. Less successful responses are likely to lift sections of the original and do little more than repeat points that are already there without going beyond the more obvious details. Look for and credit an attempt to write in an appropriate register.	15

Marking criteria for Question 2*Table A, READING: Using and understanding the material

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

Band 1	9–10	Uses and develops several ideas, both factual and inferential, from the passage. Consistently reflects the feelings of Mr Beeching and understands the difficulty of making decisions about the train service and the disagreement with the driver. Give's a convincing response from Mr Beeching about measures that will be taken in future.
Band 2	7–8	Refers to several details from the passage and makes some reference to Mr Beeching's feelings and his disagreement with the driver. Shows some awareness of what actions might be taken in future.
Band 3	5–6	Repeats some details from the passage about the weather. Shows some incomplete understanding of the differences of opinion between Mr Beeching and the driver. Focuses on the question and on the passage, but uses material simply and partially.
Band 4	3–4	There is some relevance to the question with a tendency to retell the original rather than to develop ideas from the perspective of Mr Beeching. Makes simple references to the weather conditions and the differences between Mr Beeching and the driver.
Band 5	1–2	There is an attempt to use the passage. May retell the passage or give occasional relevant facts. There may be examples of misunderstanding or lack of clarity.
Band 6	0	There is little or no relevance to the question or to the passage or the response copies unselectively or directly from the passage.

Table B, WRITING: Structure and order, style of language:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1	5	Sentences are fluent and there is a fairly wide range of vocabulary. Overall structure is good and sentences generally follow in sequence. An appropriate register is established.
Band 2	4	Sentences are correct, though relatively simple. Vocabulary is adequate and correctly used. Structure is generally sound. Some of the register is appropriate.
Band 3	3	Sentence structures and vocabulary are simple, but meaning is never in doubt. The order is reasonable. There may be an attempt at an appropriate register but it is inconsistent.
Band 4	2	The response is very simply written and there are occasional examples of blurred meaning. The structure can usually be followed. The response may be over-dependent on lifted material.
Band 5	1	The response is difficult to understand. The response may be almost entirely lifted from the original.
Band 6	0	The response cannot be understood.
