NOTES ON CONDUCTING AND RECORDING THE TESTS

Please note

1. The warm-up section may give the examiner an indication of the best card to select but the examiner must not allow the candidate to lead the choice of topic.
2. The speaking assessment cards must not be opened until one working day before the test.
3. All tests must be recorded in full throughout. The recording must not be paused or stopped at any point during the test.

GENERAL

1. The speaking tests take place in the period before the main examination series, as notified on the timetable. Each centre decides on a convenient period within these dates for its speaking tests. It is recommended that the tests are conducted within one week to allow sufficient time for a single examiner to conduct all of the tests. See Section 4 below.
2. Centres must ensure well in advance of the tests that a suitably quiet room is available and that recording equipment is in good order.
3. Centres must adhere to dates for completion of the speaking tests and for the receipt of mark sheets and recordings at Cambridge International to allow sufficient time for external moderation. It is vital that material does not arrive late.
4. For centres with 30 or fewer candidates, only one examiner must be used. Each centre will select its own examiner. This is normally a teacher within the English Language Department, but could be someone local from outside the centre. A group of neighbouring centres might choose the same teacher to conduct all their tests; in such a case each centre is still responsible for submitting properly completed forms and samples. Cambridge International is not responsible for any fees agreed.

Centres with more than 30 candidates may use more than one examiner (applying the ratio of an additional examiner for each 30 candidates). If using more than one examiner, internal moderation must be carried out by the centre so that a common standard is applied to all candidates.

5. Centres receive a set of speaking assessment cards with this set of examiner's notes. These cards must not be opened until one working day before the test. Both the cards and the notes must remain confidential and must be kept in a secure place by the centre until the end of the examination period.
6. Each centre must send to Cambridge International the following: (a) recorded sample on a CD/USB stick; (b) completed MS1 Form(s) (or printout of marks submitted electronically); (c) completed Speaking Examination Summary Form(s).

(a) Recorded sample

Each centre must provide a sample of speaking tests, to be recorded on a CD or USB stick. The size of the sample required is given in the instructions for completing the Speaking Examination Summary Form.

Please ensure that you do not send the recordings of all the candidates (unless there are 10 or fewer). Ideally the sample should be transferred to one or two CDs/USB sticks. You should keep a copy of each speaking test in case of loss or damage to the original. If the sample sent to Cambridge International is inaudible or faulty in any way, you may be asked to provide a replacement.

The teacher responsible for internal moderation at the centre must ensure that the sample covers the whole mark range of the candidates at the centre, with marks spaced as evenly as possible from the top mark to the lowest mark. Where there is more than one teacher involved, the sample must include, in equal number, candidates tested by all teachers.

For instructions on recording the tests, see Section 14 below. CDs/USB sticks must be sent to Cambridge International together with completed documents. CDs/USB sticks must be clearly labelled with details of the candidates whose speaking tests have been submitted.

(b) Form MS1

The computer-printed school-based assessment mark sheet (Form MS1) has three parts:

- The top sheet must be sent to Cambridge International in the separate envelope provided.
- The middle sheet (which is for the external moderator's use) must be sent separately to Cambridge International, together with the sample recording and Speaking Examination Summary Form(s).
- The bottom sheet must be retained by the centre, in case of postal loss or subsequent enquiries, until after the issue of results.

Form MS1 is to be completed by transferring the mark for each candidate from the 'total mark' column, or the 'internally moderated mark' column if a process of internal moderation has taken place, on the Speaking Examination Summary Form.

Centres submitting marks electronically must include a printout of the internal marks report, together with the recorded sample and Speaking Examination Summary Form.

(c) Speaking Examination Summary Form

Marks for each candidate are to be entered in detail on the Speaking Examination Summary Form. This form, and the instructions for completing it, may be downloaded from www.cambridgeinternational.org/samples. The database will ask you for the syllabus code (i.e. 0510 or 0511) and your centre number, after which it will take you to the correct form. Follow the instructions when completing the form. A copy of the form must be submitted together with the recorded sample and the middle MS1 copy (or printout of marks submitted electronically).

Please be careful to check all mark additions. The Speaking Examination Summary Form must show the breakdown of marks for all the candidates, not just those selected for the sample. Please put an asterisk (*) against the names of candidates whose speaking tests have been submitted on the CD/USB stick. The candidates' names should appear in the same order on both the summary form and the MS1.

7. The sample CD(s)/USB stick(s), along with the completed MS1 (or printout of marks submitted electronically) and a copy of the Speaking Examination Summary Form, should be returned to Cambridge International as soon as the tests have been completed at the centre. Please do not wait until the end of the assessment period before sending them.

CONDUCTING THE SPEAKING TESTS

8. The speaking tests should proceed as follows:

Part A Start the recording. Give the candidate's name and number. Welcome the candidate and explain briefly what is going to happen in the test, using the examiner script on one of the assessment card pages in these notes. This part should not take more than a minute.

Part B Warm-up section. The purpose of this section is to give the candidate time to get used to the examination situation, and put the candidate at ease by conducting a short conversation (2–3 minutes) on general topics and the candidate's hobbies and interests. The topic cards should not be discussed during this phase.

Part C Give the speaking assessment card to the candidate and announce the letter and the name of the card. This must take place AFTER the warm-up. Any necessary explanation is given at this point, followed by a short preparation period (about 2–3 minutes), when the candidate may ask questions. The candidate cannot make notes during this period.

Please note: the preparation period must be recorded.

Part D Main part of the test. Conversation based on the speaking assessment card. Either the examiner or the candidate may start the conversation. All prompts must be used, in the order they appear on the card. Do not allow candidates to deliver speeches or monologues at any point during the test. The main part of the test should last approximately 6–9 minutes.

The total duration of the speaking test, from the beginning of (A) to the end of (D), should be approximately 10–15 minutes and recorded in full.

Note that only (D) is to be assessed.

The speaking test must be conducted in English throughout.

9. Examination conditions must prevail in the area where the speaking tests take place. Adequate supervision must be provided to ensure that candidates leaving the examination room do not communicate with those waiting to enter.
10. No other person should be present during the speaking test, with the exception of another teacher/examiner, moderator or representative of Cambridge International.
11. Candidates cannot bring any notes into the examination room. They are not allowed to consult dictionaries.
12. A range of speaking assessment cards is provided, and the examiner (not the candidate) chooses the card to be used for each candidate. As wide a variety as possible of the cards should be used during the speaking tests at the centre. In order that candidates are given every chance to do themselves justice, the speaking assessment card should be selected with care. The warm-up may give the examiner an indication of the best card to select but the examiner must not allow the candidate to lead the choice of topic.
13. The examiner should be positioned so that he or she is facing the candidate, with a table or desk in between, and not allow candidates to see notes made on Speaking Examination Summary Forms or similar paperwork.

RECORDING THE TESTS

14. Before the start of the speaking test session, centres must make sure their recording equipment is in good working order by testing the equipment in the room where the speaking tests will take place. Check audibility levels to avoid adjusting the volume during the speaking test and ensure there is no extraneous noise in the examination room. Checks for audibility should continue throughout the speaking test session.

Once the speaking test has begun, the recording must run without interruption. Each CD/USB stick should begin with a clear statement by the examiner as follows:

Centre number:	[e.g.]	AZ 999
Centre name:	[e.g.]	Abcxyz Academy
Examination:	0510	English as a Second Language
Examiner name:	[e.g.]	Ms Z. Abced
Date:	[e.g.]	1 February 2021

Each candidate should be clearly indicated by the examiner as follows:

Candidate number:	[e.g.]	0021
Candidate name:	[e.g.]	Abdi Zachariah

At the end of the recording the examiner should state clearly 'end of recording'.

Before the CD/USB stick is despatched, spot checks must be made to ensure that every candidate is clearly audible. The contents of each CD/USB stick must be clearly labelled. Each track on the CD/USB stick should be renamed, giving the candidate name and number, rather than 'track 1', 'track 2', etc. A separate audio track is required for each candidate.

GENERAL ADVICE

15. Please bear in mind the following when marking:

Be objective. Do not allow any knowledge of a candidate's personality and attributes to influence objective assessment. For example, knowledge that a candidate is very conscientious in his or her homework is irrelevant in assessing his or her speaking test. If the candidate's performance is affected because he or she faces difficult circumstances or personal problems at the time of the test, this is a matter to be dealt with via special considerations procedures, for which exams officers at centres complete separate documentation. Examiners must not make any separate allowance themselves.

Be realistic. Remember that it is not necessary for a candidate to be of native speaker standard to be given maximum marks within any single category. But knowledge of a candidate's first language must not lead an examiner to ignore particular habitual errors and overlook inaccuracy.

Be consistent. It is important that the marking criteria are applied in the same way for all the candidates at the centre so that a reliable rank order for the centre is obtained.

Be positive. Marking the test should be seen as giving credit for what candidates can do, not penalising them for what they cannot do. This does not mean that matters of inaccuracy in, for example, grammar and pronunciation are to be overlooked, but is a reminder that a speaking test is intended to credit positive achievement.

16. To conduct speaking tests effectively:

- try to put candidates at their ease from the outset (smiling as they enter the room, indicating where they should sit) while maintaining a clear sense that the speaking test is being conducted in a formal examination situation
- show interest, even in mundane matters
- use 'open' questions which allow candidates to respond at length, not 'closed' questions which prompt yes/no answers.

Please avoid:

- walking about or distracting candidates
- interrupting with your own views or correcting mistakes
- showing undue surprise or impatience
- giving the impression that there are 'right' answers to questions or that the test is a test of knowledge
- making written notes during the test
- indicating how well the candidate has performed during or after the test.

MARKING CRITERIA

Give a mark out of 10 for each category (structure, vocabulary, development and fluency), and then add these marks to give an overall total out of 30.

Mark	Structure	Vocabulary	Development and Fluency
9–10	The candidate uses a range of structures accurately and consistently, and is confidently in control of the structures used.	The candidate uses a sufficient range of vocabulary to respond with precision. Shades of meaning are achieved and some sophisticated ideas are communicated.	The candidate shows sustained ability to maintain a conversation (and contribute) at some length. The candidate responds to a change of direction in the conversation, demonstrating the ability to expand and develop the topic and contribute original ideas. Pronunciation and intonation are clear.
7–8	The candidate uses a range of structures that are generally accurate (and used) with some confidence. Errors will occur when attempting to use more complex sentences.	The candidate uses a sufficient range of vocabulary to convey information and ideas with competence and some confidence.	The candidate maintains a competent conversation, responding relevantly and at length, using some original ideas. Frequent prompting is unnecessary. Pronunciation and intonation are generally clear.
5–6	The candidate uses simple structures securely, but has difficulty venturing beyond them.	The candidate uses a sufficient range of vocabulary to convey simple ideas and information clearly, but not entirely successfully.	The candidate makes an attempt to respond to questions and prompts. Effort is needed to develop the conversation which will not be entirely successful. Pronunciation and intonation are not always clear, but the candidate can be understood.
3–4	The candidate uses very simple, limited structures with errors which restrict communication.	The candidate uses a restricted range of vocabulary and has difficulty in conveying simple ideas. There is likely to be hesitation, repetition and searching for words.	The candidate has to be encouraged to go beyond responses which are brief and widely spaced. The candidate struggles to develop a conversation. Pronunciation and intonation cause some communication difficulty.
1–2	The candidate attempts a response, but rarely achieves communication.	The candidate has insufficient vocabulary to convey even simple ideas.	The candidate's responses are so brief that little is communicated. Pronunciation and intonation patterns cause difficulty for even the most sympathetic listener.
0	No response.	No response.	No response.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

First we will have a 2–3-minute general discussion about your interests and life outside school. This part isn't assessed.

Then I will give you an assessment card which has the topic we will discuss in the last part of the test. You will have 2–3 minutes to read the five prompts on the card to prepare for this part. You can't make any written notes but you can ask me to explain anything you don't understand.

Finally, we will have a discussion based on the five prompts on the card and any ideas of your own on the topic. This part lasts 6–9 minutes and is the only part that is assessed. You may keep the card until the end of the test.

Do you have any questions?

Then start the test.

A ObligationsCandidate's Card

Sometimes people have to do certain things in life whether they like it or not, for example, doing jobs around the house, going to school or going to work.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- a time you had to do something, and how you felt
- the obligations you have at home and school
- whether young people should help in their local community, and why
- what life would be like with no obligations
- the suggestion that only young people have an obligation to save our planet.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

B Noticing things around usCandidate's Card

When we look around us, we often notice a lot of interesting things.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- something interesting you saw on your way to school recently, and what you thought about it
- the changes you have noticed in your local area in the past few years
- jobs where noticing things and people is important, and why
- whether different people have different memories of the same event, such as a party or a trip
- the view that our modern lifestyle makes us so busy that we don't notice the things and people around us.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

C MusicCandidate's Card

Music is a very important part of many people's lives, whether they like to listen to it or make it.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- whether music is important to you, and why
- whether the music you like is different from the music your friends and family like
- the opinion that a job in the music industry is a good career choice
- the view that it is easier to become successful at music than at sport
- what life would be like without music.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

D FlyingCandidate's Card

People travel by air for business trips and holidays.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- a flight that you, or someone you know, took recently, and why
- what you always take with you when you travel, and why
- the advantages and disadvantages of travelling by air
- the suggestion that people should stop flying in order to protect the environment
- the view that people don't need to travel to distant places because they can see them on their computer screens.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

First we will have a 2–3-minute general discussion about your interests and life outside school. This part isn't assessed.

E Preparing for workCandidate's Card

Many young people start thinking about their future careers while they are still at school.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- the job that you would like to do when you are older, and why
- different things people think about when deciding on their future careers
- whether work experience is more important than qualifications for getting a job
- the advantages and disadvantages of having the same job all your working life
- the view that it's more important to have a good social life than a well-paid job.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

F AgeCandidate's Card

As people get older, they go through different stages in their lives.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- what you enjoy about the age you are now
- a nice memory you have from when you were younger, and what happened
- the advantages and disadvantages of living together with older relatives
- the view that there shouldn't be any age limits for things like driving a car or voting
- the suggestion that, in the future, people will live much longer.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

First we will have a 2–3-minute general discussion about your interests and life outside school. This part isn't assessed.

Do you have any questions?

Then start the test.

G PraiseCandidate's Card

When we praise somebody, we say something nice about their skills or achievements.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- a time someone praised you, and why
- whether you and your friends ever praise each other, and why
- ways people celebrate different achievements in your country
- the view that praising young children a lot isn't always a good thing
- the opinion that criticism motivates people more than praise.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

First we will have a 2–3-minute general discussion about your interests and life outside school. This part isn't assessed.

Do you have any questions?

Then start the test.

H Time managementCandidate's Card

Some people organise their time well in order to do everything they want.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- whether you think you organise your time well, and why
- an occasion when you didn't have enough time, and what happened
- reasons why some people find it difficult to manage their time
- the opinion that good time management is essential for success
- the suggestion that, in the future, people will have less free time.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

First we will have a 2–3-minute general discussion about your interests and life outside school. This part isn't assessed.

Then I will give you an assessment card which has the topic we will discuss in the last part of the test. You will have 2–3 minutes to read the five prompts on the card to prepare for this part. You can't make any written notes but you can ask me to explain anything you don't understand.

Do you have any questions?

Then start the test.

I ConcentrationCandidate's Card

Some people find it very easy to focus on something for a long time, while others can only do it for a short time.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- a time you had to concentrate a lot, and what happened
- what helps you concentrate better
- the types of jobs that need a lot of concentration, and why
- the different ways a modern lifestyle affects our ability to concentrate
- the view that people can only focus on things they enjoy.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

First we will have a 2–3-minute general discussion about your interests and life outside school. This part isn't assessed.

Do you have any questions?

Then start the test.

J Wearing the right clothesCandidate's Card

People wear different clothes to study, exercise and party.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- the clothes you wear for school or to exercise, and why
- how school or work clothes are different from party clothes
- the types of jobs where people have to wear uniforms, and why
- the opinion that wearing the right clothes can make you feel more confident
- the idea that people can tell someone's personality from the clothes they wear.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

K Talking to othersCandidate's Card

It is interesting to talk to other people to discover what they think and how they feel.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- a time when you had an interesting conversation with somebody and what it was about
- a famous person you would like to talk to, and why
- how talking to other people can change our mood
- whether it is much easier to listen to people than to speak to them
- the suggestion that people can solve most misunderstandings by talking to each other face to face.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

Do you have any questions?

Then start the test.

L Changing your opinionCandidate's Card

Changing what you think about something can be difficult.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- a time when you changed your opinion about something, and why
- whether you and your parents have the same opinions about music or fashion
- whether you should ever try to change someone's opinion
- the suggestion that changing your mind is a sign of weakness
- the view that people only want friends who have the same opinions as them.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

Instructions to the teacher/examiner

When you have started the recording, given the candidate's name and number and welcomed the candidate, please read the following explanation to the candidate.

First we will have a 2–3-minute general discussion about your interests and life outside school. This part isn't assessed.

Then I will give you an assessment card which has the topic we will discuss in the last part of the test. You will have 2–3 minutes to read the five prompts on the card to prepare for this part. You can't make any written notes but you can ask me to explain anything you don't understand.

Finally, we will have a discussion based on the five prompts on the card and any ideas of your own on the topic. This part lasts 6–9 minutes and is the only part that is assessed. You may keep the card until the end of the test.

Do you have any questions?

Then start the test.

M Respecting othersCandidate's Card

We respect people whose qualities and achievements we admire.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- someone you respect, and why
- different ways of showing respect to others
- the qualities we often respect in other people, and why
- the view that nature also deserves our respect
- the suggestion that we should show the same respect to all people.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

N FeelingsCandidate's Card

Different situations in life make us feel different emotions. For example, sometimes we feel happy, but sometimes we feel sad.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- a time when you felt really happy, and what happened
- the different ways people show how they feel
- whether music and other forms of art affect how people feel
- the opinion that people can only be happy when they have a lot of friends
- the view that there are some situations when we should not say what we think.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.

O Space travelCandidate's Card

Many people like the idea of space travel and visiting other planets.

Discuss this topic with the examiner.

Use the following prompts, in the order given below, to develop the conversation:

- whether you would like to travel into space, and why
- things and places on Earth you would show a visitor from space, and why
- the suggestion that anyone can become an astronaut
- the opinion that space exploration is a waste of time and money
- the view that, in the future, we will all live on other planets.

You may introduce related ideas of your own to expand on these prompts.

Remember, you are not allowed to make any written notes.
