MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2014 series

0470 HISTORY

0470/11

Paper 1, maximum raw mark 60

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2014 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Applying the Mark Scheme

- ambridge.com When marking a response the overall criteria to be considered should be - 'How good is the response to this question?'
- The 'Level Descriptor' should be used to decide the Level into which the quality of the answer fits.
- Exhaustive lists of possible facts are not given in the mark scheme, as there is often a choice of • factual knowledge that candidates may use.
- WHERE EXAMPLES OF RESPONSES ARE GIVEN, THESE ARE NOT PRESCRIPTIVE, BUT ARE INTENDED AS A GUIDE. It is not possible to cover every possible type of response within a levels of response mark scheme and examiners are expected to use their professional judgement at all times in ensuring that responses are placed in the correct levels and given an appropriate mark within that level.
- Marking must be positive. Marks must not be deducted for inaccurate or irrelevant parts of answers. In itself, poor use of historical terminology, spelling, grammar or handwriting does not affect the mark. The overall quality of the answer to the question should be judged.
- If a candidate reaches a particular level s/he must be rewarded with a mark within that level. It is not necessary to work through the levels.
- The full range of marks should be used. Do not be afraid to award full marks or no marks. Failure to do this will seriously affect the distribution of marks. Be prepared to reward candidates who show any level of understanding. The mark scheme starts from basic acceptable response. Where a band of marks is indicated for a level these marks should be used with reference to the development of the answer within that level.

Assessment Objectives

The Assessment Objectives being tested in each part of a question are:

- (a) recall, description
- (b) recall, explanation
- (c) recall, explanation and analysis.

'The Communists had able leaders, like Mao, who had effective control and good tactical sense. KMT generals were not respected and there was a lack of discipline within their army.'

The Communists cared for the peasants and treated the population fairly with equal rationing and keeping firm law and order. This gained popular support in contrast to the looting, raping and corruption of the KMT.'

[8]

e.g. 'William Lovett represented the "moral force". Supporting members wanted to use the methods of persuasion. This may attract middle class support. In contrast, Feargus O'Connor represented the "physical force". Supporting members encouraged violence and riots in supporting their cause. This lost the movement general support.'

e.g. 'The Chartists presented petitions to Parliament. They contained duplicate signatures and false signatures, such as Queen Victoria and the Duke of Wellington. The movement was ridiculed.'
