MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 60

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2021 series for most Cambridge IGCSE™, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 91 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

Applying the Mark Scheme

- When marking a response the overall criterion to be considered should be – ‘How good is this response to this question?’
- The Level Descriptor should be used to decide the level into which the quality of the answer fits.
- Exhaustive lists of possible facts are not given in the mark scheme, as there is often a choice of factual knowledge that candidates may use.
- WHERE EXAMPLES OF RESPONSES ARE GIVEN, THESE ARE NOT PRESCRIPTIVE, BUT ARE INTENDED AS A GUIDE. It is not possible to cover every possible type of response within a levels of response mark scheme and examiners are expected to use their professional judgement at all times in ensuring that responses are placed in the correct level and given an appropriate mark within that level.
- Marking must be positive. Marks must not be deducted for inaccurate or irrelevant parts of answers. In itself, poor use of historical terminology, spelling, grammar or handwriting does not affect the mark. The overall quality of the answer to the question should be judged.
- If a candidate reaches a particular level, s/he must be rewarded with a mark within that level. It is not necessary to work through the levels.
- The full range of marks should be used. Do not be afraid to award full marks or no marks. Failure to do this will seriously affect the distribution of marks. Be prepared to reward candidates who show any level of understanding. The mark scheme starts from basic acceptable response. Where a band of marks is indicated for a level, these marks should be used with reference to the development of the answer within that level.

Assessment Objectives

- (a) recall, description
- (b) recall, explanation
- (c) recall, explanation and analysis

Question	Answer	Marks
SECTION A: CORE CONTENT
1(a)	Describe how Frederick William IV reacted to unrest in Berlin in 1848.	4
	Level 1 – One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘First planned to repress the unrest with the army.’ ‘Recalled the troops.’ ‘Supported German unification.’ ‘Formed a liberal government.’ ‘Called a national assembly.’ ‘Began on a new constitution’. ‘Ordered the army to reoccupy Berlin.’ ‘Dissolved the assembly.’
	Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
1(b)	Why were there challenges to the existing regimes in Italy in 1848?	6
	Level 4 – Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 – Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘One of the main reasons was Austrian rule. The Austrians controlled much of northern Italy and this foreign rule was very unpopular. There was a permanent Austrian army that was hated and people had to pay the Austrians unpopular taxes and the Austrians even increased these taxes which were then used to finance other parts of the Austrian Empire. This led the people to rise up against the Austrians. This is what happened in Milan.’		4–5
	Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘Some Italians wanted a liberal government.’ ‘Italians wanted to get rid of Austrian rule.’ ‘This was because of the reforms introduced by the Pope in Rome.’ ‘The Austrians increased taxes.’ ‘People in Sicily wanted a provisional government that was separate from the government of the mainland.’ ‘There had been crop failure in 1846 and 1847.’ ‘Food prices were high leading to starvation.’ ‘The ‘Statuto’ issued by Charles Albert in 1847 encouraged people to hope for reform.’		2–3
	Level 1 – General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘There were challenges because people were unhappy with the existing rulers.’		1
Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

Question	Answer	Marks
1(c)	How important were the revolutions of 1848? Explain your answer. Level 5 – Explains with evaluation of ‘how important’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 – Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8. Level 3 – One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5–6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The revolutions were not important because they all failed. In France military repression was used to put down the revolutions in Paris and Prague. The Austrians were also able to restore their control in Italy and those fighting for Italian unification got nowhere. Everywhere liberal and national demands were lost. Absolute monarchy was re-established in Germany, Austria and Italy, while in France the revolution ended up with a hereditary emperor being established. This was the opposite to the aims of the revolutionaries. The revolutions were not important because their aims were not achieved and everywhere old systems of government were restored.’ OR e.g. ‘The revolutions were very important in terms of the ideas they supported. These ideas are what made the revolutions important. Ideas such as nationalism grew much stronger. In places like Italy they did not go away and an independent and unified Italy was achieved in the following decades. Liberalism and ideas such as freedom of the press and a liberal constitution had emerged and were not killed off for good. Many of the aims of the revolutionaries were achieved by the 1870s. In the long term, the revolutions were important.’	10

Question	Answer	Marks
1(c)	Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes (One mark for each point) e.g. ‘The revolutions were important because they brought nationalism to the fore and it would not go away.’ ‘In Italy it was seen that Austrian power could be questioned and even defeated.’ ‘In Italy the revolutions stimulated demands for independence and unification.’ ‘In France the monarchy was toppled and the country became a Republic.’ ‘They were important because there were achievements such as all men getting the vote in France.’ ‘In Sardinia the Constitution of March 1848 was kept.’ ‘In Austria feudalism was abolished.’ ‘In France the Republic was defeated and Napoleon became emperor.’ ‘In Hungary the revolution was crushed and Hungary was put under brutal martial law.’ ‘Austria regained its power in Italy.’	2–3
	Level 1 – General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘The revolutions were not important because they did not change much.’	1
	Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

Question	Answer	Marks
2(a)	Describe what happened at Harpers Ferry in 1859.	4
	Level 1 – One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘John Brown tried to start a slave revolt.’ ‘John Brown led a group of armed men into the town and took hostages.’ ‘It was a raid on a US arsenal.’ ‘The raiders cut the telegraph to stop help from coming.’ ‘Some of the local slaves joined Brown.’ ‘Brown captured the armoury.’ ‘The local militia surrounded the armoury.’ ‘A militia company arrived and forced Brown and his men back and freed some of the prisoners.’ ‘US marines attacked the engine house and killed or captured all the raiders.’ ‘John Brown was captured.’
	Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
2(b)	Why was Reconstruction not successful?	6
	Level 4 – Explains TWO reasons 6
	Level 3 – Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘President Andrew Johnson was the reason why Reconstruction failed. He was a weak president and failed to support Reconstruction properly. He pardoned former Confederate officers and took Union troops out of the South before the rights of black Americans had been secured. This allowed the Black Codes to be introduced and implemented and this reduced the impact of the abolition of slavery. Johnson’s idea of Reconstruction did not include involving black Americans or former slaves in government and he did nothing when the Black Codes began to be introduced.’
	Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘It failed because neither President Johnson nor President Grant were really behind it.’ ‘The states of the Confederacy would not cooperate.’ ‘Black Americans were still dependent on the white planters and were unable to develop economically.’ ‘The Freedman’s Bureau was understaffed and could not be effective enough.’ ‘The activities of organisations, such as the KKK, undermined efforts at reconstruction.’ ‘White dominated legislatures tried to establish white supremacy by disenfranchising black Americans.’ ‘It failed because the North tried to take power away from Southern white people and they reacted to this.’ ‘It failed for economic reasons – land was not given to freed men so that they had an economic base to help them prosper.’
	Level 1 – General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘It failed because not many people supported it and so it had no chance of succeeding.’
Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

Question	Answer	Marks
2(c)	How important was slavery as a cause of the Civil War? Explain your answer. Level 5 – Explains with evaluation of ‘how important’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 – Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8. Level 3 – One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5–6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I do not think that slavery was all that important. The fundamental issue was that of states’ rights and arguments over slavery were just a symptom of this. The population of the North was growing more quickly than that of the South, which was worried that this would lead to the North permanently controlling the government of the USA. One way that the South could protect itself from Northern power was to argue that the power of the federal government should be limited and that individual states should have the power to decide issues such as slavery.’ OR ‘I think that slavery was the most important cause of the Civil War. It was the crucial issue that divided the North and the South. In the years before the war, you can see tensions over slavery rising and the divisions growing greater. The Compromise of 1850 was to prevent a war over slavery, but it was only a temporary solution and the issue came back in the Kansas-Nebraska Act. It was the issue of slavery that led to the violence of ‘Bleeding Kansas’ in 1855–56, and in 1857 the Dred Scott decision made divisions over slavery even greater. It is clear that all the problems that faced the USA were caused by the issue of slavery and this led to the Civil War.’	10

Question	Answer	Marks
2(c)	Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes (One mark for each point) e.g. ‘States’ rights was a more important issue than slavery.’ ‘The election of Lincoln as president was more important than slavery.’ ‘The main cause of the Civil War was the secession of Southern states.’ ‘Slavery was the main cause. It was crucial to the economy of the South but not to that of the North.’ ‘Slavery was the main issue. There was a fundamental moral disagreement about whether it was evil or not.’ ‘The main cause was the expansion of the United States. Every time a new state was added, it became a battle ground between North and South.’	2–3
	Level 1 – General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘Slavery was an important cause of the Civil War because a lot of people felt very strongly about it.’	1
	Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

Question	Answer	Marks
3(a)	What were the beliefs of the Boxers?	4
	Level 1 – One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘They believed that Western encroachment in China should be stopped.’ ‘They thought that they were not vulnerable against their enemies.’ ‘They thought that millions of soldiers would come down from heaven to help them in their struggle against foreigners.’ ‘They thought the work of Christian missionaries was wrong.’ ‘The Boxers believed problems facing China like famine and low standards of living were caused by foreigners.’
	Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

Question	Answer	Marks
3(b)	Why was the Congo important to Leopold II?	6
	Level 4 – Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 – Explains ONE reason		4–5
	(Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘The Congo was important because it gave Leopold an enormous personal fortune. The Congo had ivory and rubber that he could make money from. There was a great global demand for rubber and so it fetched high prices. Leopold exploited the local people for their labour to obtain the rubber. They were beaten and mutilated and millions were killed. He made his fortune from all this. As he personally owned the Congo, all the wealth belonged to him and not to Belgium.’
	Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes reasons		2–3
(One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘It was important to him because it was to make him rich.’ ‘He thought that colonies could make a country great.’ ‘It was important to him because of its ivory and rubber.’
Level 1 – General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge		1
e.g. ‘It was important to him because it gave him everything he wanted.’
Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question		0

3(c)	‘The Indian Mutiny achieved little.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 – Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 – Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 – One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5–6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘As far as Indians were concerned the mutiny achieved little. The mutineers were defeated and the British carried out terrible revenge with many being killed. The harsh punishments were generally welcomed in Britain where stories of the excesses of the mutineers had scandalised the public. Britain also tightened its hold on India. The percentage of soldiers that were British went up and many of the Indian regiments were disbanded. The aims of the mutineers were completely forgotten and the Mughal dynasty was ended.’ OR ‘There were some reforms. Control of India was taken away from the East India Company and put under the British government. A new government office was set up – the India Office. Moves away from the policies of the EIC were made. Attempts at Westernisation were stopped and there was more religious toleration. More Indians were allowed into the Indian Civil Service creating a new Indian middle class. There was also more respect paid to local traditions and the wishes of local Indian leaders with local government given more powers.’

Question	Answer	Marks
3(c)	Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 (One mark for each point) e.g. ‘The mutineers were harshly punished.’ ‘Any nationalist hopes were killed by the ending of the Mughal dynasty.’ ‘India was placed under the British government and so there was even less chance of an independent India.’ ‘The mutiny was thoroughly defeated.’ ‘The East India Company lost control of India.’ ‘More Indians were appointed to the Indian Civil Service.’ ‘There were fewer attempts at westernisation.’ ‘Local traditions and religions were given more respect.’
	Level 1 – General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘The Indian Mutiny achieved little because it was badly organised.’
	Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question 0

4(a)	Describe German colonial policy in the period 1890 to 1914.	4
	Level 1 – One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘Germany wanted colonies.’ ‘Germany was trying to catch up with other European countries, which had colonies.’ ‘The Kaiser followed a policy of Weltpolitik.’ ‘Germany thought that to become a great power it had to have colonies.’ ‘Germany acquired the Pacific Ocean colonies.’ ‘In 1904 Germany brutally put down a rebellion by Herero tribes in South West Africa.’ ‘The Herero were put in concentration camps.’ ‘The Herero were used as slave labour.’ ‘Germany put a lot of work into developing Togoland.’ ‘Germany tried to undermine French influence in the First Moroccan Crisis of 1905-06.’ ‘After the Second Moroccan Crisis, Germany was given the colony of Middle Congo.’

4(b)	Why were events in the Balkans in 1912–13 important?	6
	Level 4 – Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 – Explains ONE reason		4–5
	(Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘Events in the Balkans were important because of their impact on the Ottoman Empire. The Balkan League attacked the Ottoman Empire because its members wanted independence from the Empire. The Ottoman Empire was defeated and lost much of its European territory. It also ended Ottoman rule in much of the Balkan peninsula. All of this was important because it led to the sharp decline of the Ottoman Empire. As it was isolated and in trouble, it allied with Germany in the First World War.’
	Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes reasons		2–3
(One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘They were a disaster for the Ottoman Empire which lost lots of its territory in Europe.’ ‘They were important because a stronger Serbia emerged.’ ‘Serbia had ambitions to create a Greater Serbia.’ ‘These events were important because they led to tension between Serbia and Austria.’ ‘These events were important because Russia was left with just Serbia as an ally against Austria.’ ‘This meant Russia had to support Serbia against Austria in 1914.’ ‘These events were important because they led to Bulgaria looking to Austria for support.’ ‘These events created a very unstable situation in the Balkans.’ ‘These events contributed to the start of World War 1.’
Level 1 – General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge		1
e.g. ‘These events were important because they had an enormous impact on the next few years.’
Level 0 – No evidence submitted or response does not address the question		0

4(c)	‘Germany was reluctant to go to war in 1914.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. Level 5 – Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 – Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). 	Level 3 – One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5–6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I do not agree that Germany was reluctant to go to war. I think it wanted to become a superpower and knew that it would have to defeat Russia and France to achieve this. This can be seen by its Schlieffen Plan which it hoped would allow it to knock out France quickly before Russia could mobilise. When the Archduke’s assassination took place, Germany encouraged Austria to provoke Serbia into war. This gave Germany the excuse to launch the war.’ OR e.g. ‘I think Germany was reluctant to go to war. This can be seen by the fact that the decisive event was Russia mobilising. At this stage Germany was not preparing for war. Russia was determined to use the crisis over the assassination to attack Austria. Germany was even trying to mediate between Austria and Serbia. Russian mobilisation changed everything and Germany had to mobilise because of the threat from Russia. In this way, Germany was dragged into war.’ Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 (One mark for each point) e.g. ‘The Schlieffen Plan shows that Germany was keen on war.’ ‘Germany gave Austria the ‘blank cheque’ and this shows it was keen on war.’ ‘Germany wanted to be a world power and was determined to defeat Russia and France.’ ‘Germany was forced into war by the Russian mobilisation.’ ‘Germany was keen to go to war as is shown by the fact that it declared war on Belgium.’ ‘Germany was dragged into war by Austria’s actions.’ ‘Germany was not keen on a war because it was not sure what position Britain would take.’

Question	Answer	Marks
5(b)	Why was the League's failure over Corfu important? Level 4 – Explains TWO reasons 6 Level 3 – Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The League's failure was important because it showed the League's weakness when it came up against major powers such as Italy. When an Italian general was murdered, Mussolini sent forces to bombard and occupy Corfu. Greece appealed to the League of Nations, but Mussolini refused to let the League have any say on the matter and demanded it go to the Conference of Ambassadors. This is what happened and Italy got its demands. This was important because it showed that powerful countries could just ignore the League of Nations. This would be a lesson for other powerful countries in the future.'	6
	Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'Its failure was important because this was its first real test.' 'Its failure was important because it showed the League was weak.' 'This was important because it showed that powerful countries could ignore the League.' 'It was a lesson for powerful countries that if they ignored the League, they could get away with it.' 'It was important because it showed how Fascist countries would act in their foreign policies.' 'It showed GB and France were more interested in their own interests.'
	Level 1 – General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. 'It was important because what happened affected a number of countries.'

5(c)	‘The League’s lack of an army explains its failure in the 1930s.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. Level 5 – Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 – Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). 	Level 3 – One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5–6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I agree with this. The fact it did not have an army was a major weakness of the League. This can be seen when Italy invaded Abyssinia. The League decided against Italy and voted for economic sanctions. However, without an army to back up such a threat, the League could do nothing when Mussolini simply ignored the sanctions. If the League had had an army, Mussolini might have been persuaded to back down. The truth was that without an army, the League simply could not stand up to major powers.’ OR e.g. ‘I disagree with this. The main reason why the League failed in the 1930s was the slow and uncertain way it acted when there was a crisis. This can be seen when Japan invaded Manchuria. It took the League over a year to decide what to do and by that time it was too late - Japan was in control of Manchuria and there was nothing the League could do. Having an army would have made no difference. Manchuria was so far away that the problems of getting an army out there would also have been great. The League needed to be determined to stand up to aggression. This was not the case. If the League had had an army, it probably wouldn’t have been able to agree to use it.’

Question	Answer	Marks
5(c)	Level 2 – Identifies AND/OR describes 2–3 (One mark for each point) e.g. ‘The League failed because the USA was not a member.’ ‘The League failed because Britain and France used it to pursue their own interests.’ ‘It failed because several major powers such as Germany and the USSR were not members for long periods of time.’ ‘The League failed because its decision-making was so slow.’ ‘The lack of an army meant that the League could not enforce its decisions.’ ‘Countries were unwilling to provide soldiers for the army.’ ‘It failed because of the structure of the League such as requiring unanimous decisions.’ ‘It could not enforce disarmament.’ ‘It failed because of the effects of the Depression.’

6(b)	Why was Anschluss important to Hitler?	6
	Level 3 – Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘This was because one of Hitler’s main aims was to incorporate into Germany as many Germans living outside Germany as possible. Hitler believed that the Aryan race (which included Germans) was superior to all others and so he wanted to collect all proper Germans into Germany. The people living in Austria were German speakers and so Hitler regarded them as German. Anschluss was the union between Germany and Austria and allowed Hitler to achieve his aim of uniting all Germans.’

This is because Cuba was a communist country off the coast of the USA and so the missiles there were a real threat to America. The missiles could reach major cities all over the country. It was the USSR that had put the missiles there and the USSR was America’s biggest rival at the time. The USA could not afford to be the loser in this crisis.’ OR e.g. ‘The Korean War was more important for the USA. It was a major effort to stop the spread of communism. Troops from the communist North Korea invaded South Korea and were supported by both China and the USSR. There was a real danger that South Korea would fall to the communists. This would have been an important step in spreading communism to other countries in South East Asia. The Americans believed in the domino theory – that if one country fell to communism, then neighbouring countries would fall. 	Level 4 – Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 – Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘The main reason traditional industries struggled was because of changes happening in American society and the failure of these industries to adapt to the changes. For example, the coal industry found that it was producing too much coal because demand was going down. The Cultural Revolution made relations even worse and there were border clashes. China did not want to be isolated and so began to improve its relations with the USA. Egypt agreed to sell oil to Israel and in return, Israel returned Sinai and removed their settlements from there. The Agreement achieved a lot at the time and much later.' OR e.g. 'The Oslo Accords were signed by Israel and the PLO and I think they achieved more than the Camp David meetings. In 1994, a Palestinian Authority was set up, although not all parts of the agreement were carried out and Israel has since re-entered many areas and continued with its settlements. However, the Accords still went a long way towards the self-determination of the Palestinians.
