

Section A: The Revolutionary War, 1775–1783

Study the Background Information below and then answer all the questions. Use your knowledge to help you interpret and evaluate the sources, as appropriate.

Background Information

The Revolutionary War was long and bloody. It was fought between British and rebel/patriot forces. The rebel/patriot forces included the Continental Army. There were some major battles and hundreds of smaller engagements. Both sides had victories and defeats. The quality of the soldiers and the skills of the officers involved were significant factors in deciding the outcome of the Revolutionary War.

Part A: Key Aspects of the Fighting

You are advised to spend 1 hour answering Questions 1 to 4.

1 Study Source A.

What happened during the Battle of Bunker Hill? Explain your answer using details from the source and your knowledge. [6]

2 Study Source B.

How reliable is this painting in showing the hardships endured by the Continental Army in Valley Forge, 1777? Explain your answer using details from the source and your knowledge. [7]

3 Study Source C.

Does this cartoon accurately show the main events of the Revolutionary War before 1782? Explain your answer using details from the source and your knowledge. [7]

4 Study Sources D and E.

To what extent do these sources show that the tactics of the British and the rebels/patriots in the South differed? Explain your answer using details from the sources and your knowledge. [10]

Part B: The Armies

You are advised to spend 30 minutes on your answer.

5 Study Sources F and G.

“The Continental Army was better than the British Army.” How far do you agree? Use Sources F and G and your knowledge to explain your answer.

In addition to Sources F and G, you may use any of the Sources A to E to help you answer this question. [15]

[Total: 45]

Section B: The New Deal, 1933–1939

Study the Background Information below and then answer all the questions. Use your knowledge to help you interpret and evaluate the sources, as appropriate.

Background Information

The Great Depression had severe economic and social consequences. In campaigning for the presidency, F. D. Roosevelt promised a “New Deal” to solve the problems of unemployment and falling living standards by reviving the economy. His administration introduced many policies with varying degrees of success.

Part A: Did the New Deal help people?

You are advised to spend 1 hour answering Questions 6 to 9.

6 Study Source H.

What is the message of this photograph? Explain your answer using details from the source and your knowledge. [6]

7 Study Source I.

Does this statement show that the problems faced by farmers had been resolved? Explain your answer using details from the source and your knowledge. [7]

8 Study Source J.

How useful is this picture as evidence for the effects of the New Deal on the workforce? Explain your answer using details from the source and your knowledge. [7]

9 Study Sources K and L.

To what extent are the claims made in Source L about the rights of workers contradicted by Source K? Explain your answer using details from the sources and your knowledge. [10]

Part B: An Assessment of the New Deal

You are advised to spend 30 minutes on your answer.

10 Study Sources M and N.

“The New Deal was a success.” How far do you agree? Use Sources M and N and your knowledge to explain your answer.

In addition to Sources M and N, you may use any of the Sources H to L to help you answer this question. [15]

[Total: 45]

BLANK PAGE

Permission to reproduce items where third-party owned material protected by copyright is included has been sought and cleared where possible. Every reasonable effort has been made by the publisher (UCLES) to trace copyright holders, but if any items requiring clearance have unwittingly been included, the publisher will be pleased to make amends at the earliest possible opportunity.

To avoid the issue of disclosure of answer-related information to candidates, all copyright acknowledgements are reproduced online in the Cambridge International Examinations Copyright Acknowledgements Booklet. This is produced for each series of examinations and is freely available to download at www.cie.org.uk after the live examination series.

Cambridge International Examinations is part of the Cambridge Assessment Group. Cambridge Assessment is the brand name of University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate (UCLES), which is itself a department of the University of Cambridge.