In all sections the instructions to candidates and timed playings of the extracts are recorded.

Supervisors must check CDs as soon as they are received. Also, on the teaching day before the examination, the acoustics must be tested in the room to be used for the examination.

The extracts on which this examination is based have been recorded on CDs and should be played on a good quality CD player.

Prior to the examination locate the correct tracks on CD2 for the Set Work that your candidates have chosen in Section D.

Instructions to Supervisors during the Examination
