MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2011 question paper for the guidance of teachers

0471 TRAVEL AND TOURISM

0471/01

Paper 1 (Written Paper), maximum raw mark 100

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

- Cambridge will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2011 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

Question	Expected Answer	Mark
1 (a)	State and explain three negative environmental impacts likely to be caused by the development work shown in Fig. 1(a). Most candidates will offer pollution types and we should be careful not to be overly generous to vague statements that are not really justified by what is shown in Fig. 1(a). Award one mark for the correct identification of each of three valid negative environmental impacts and award a second mark for an appropriate explanatory comment about each. Correct ideas include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • noise pollution (1) – heavy machinery (1) • visual pollution (1) – unsightly (1) • water pollution (1) – building waste in sea (1) • wildlife disruption (1) – habitat lost (1) • tidal changes (1) – construction in sea (1) • beach destruction (1) – clearly disruption to the existing ecosystem (1) Credit all valid reasoning.	6	1.2(c)
(b)	When the development work is complete, the destination expects to receive additional visitors. Explain three positive economic impacts that are likely to result from this increase in visitor numbers. Very straightforward – award one mark for the correct identification of each of three valid positive economic impacts and award a second mark for an appropriate explanatory comment about each. Correct ideas include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • more jobs (1) – created by demand (1) • increase in standard of living (1) – wages (1) • foreign exchange (1) – visitor spend (1) • multiplier effect (1) – consumption of supplies (1) • less underemployment (1) – more staff required (1) Credit all valid reasoning.	6	1.2(b)
(c)	Dubai (25N, 55E) is located north of the Tropic of Cancer on the southern shore of the Arabian Gulf. State the following: Award one mark for each correct identification as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Time = advance • Ocean = Indian • Reason = the heat/high temperatures 	3	2.2(a) 2.1(a) 2.2(c)

(d)	Fig. 1(b) shows one of the many small shops in Dubai's Gold Souk (market). Suggest and explain two reasons why local markets, such as the Dubai Gold Souk, attract many visiting tourists. Candidates do not have to be familiar with Dubai to answer this – there are clues to interpret in the wording of the question and in Fig. 1(b). Award one mark for the correct identification of each of two valid reasons and award a second mark for an explanatory development. Valid points will include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • plenty of choice within shops (1) – styles to choose from (1) • plenty of choice between shops (1) – this allows comparison shopping (1) • souk is famous (1) – a must-see activity (1) • cost/cheap/value (1) – expected to haggle (1) – no tax or VAT • shopping good value (1) – exchange rate (1) Credit all valid reasoning.	4	4.1
(e)	Many leisure tourists will choose to take an organised sightseeing tour in their destination. With reference to one organised tour with which you are familiar, assess its appeal to visiting leisure tourists. This is quite straightforward; however, candidates must provide details of a specific tour otherwise 4 max. The key is the assessment of what the candidate identifies as features of the chosen tour and we will credit all valid comments relating to visiting leisure tourist needs and expectations. Use level of response criteria Level 1 (1–2 marks) will identify up to two appropriate aspects of the chosen tour e.g. transport, places visited etc. providing some detail but will be mainly descriptive. Level 2 (3–4 marks) can be awarded for an analysis of selected tour aspects, clearly indicating suitability for tourist needs and/or requirements for at least two of these. Level 3 (5–6 marks) can be awarded for evaluative comment about each aspect and this will probably be related to the service's meeting of customer needs. The better answers will have a reasoned conclusion. Example: e.g. Dinner cruise on Bateaux Dubai along Dubai Creek. The creek is a natural seawater inlet that cuts through the centre of Dubai. Leisure vessels such as Bateaux Dubai cruise to Al-Maktoum Bridge allowing diners to view many of the city's historic as well as modern landmarks (L1). As well as the impressive architecture (L1), passengers see a picturesque glimpse of Dubai's trading heritage (L1), where dhows bound for distant places dock to unload their goods (L1). The dinner cruise provides visitors with a romantic setting for eating and watching the view (L2) and gaps in the order of service allow guests to go on deck and take photos (L2). The biggest attraction is the 4-course dinner and 5* service and a summer special at 333AED makes this an outstanding value-for-money attraction (L3).	6	4.2(a)

(b)	With reference to Fig. 2, identify and explain two reasons why many Americans seek medical treatment outside of the USA. Please be aware that Fig. 2 clearly suggests that there are only 3 real reasons and thus credit is RESTRICTED to these. Award one mark for the identification of each of two valid reasons and award a second mark for an appropriate explanatory development of each – to be based on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • costs (1) – much cheaper than in USA (1) • quality of care (1) – JCI US-based quality assessor approved (1) • range of treatments available (1) – cardiac, spine and joints (1) 	4	2.4(b)

(d)	Some destinations in Less Economically Developed Countries (LEDCs) have experienced a rapid increase in international visitor arrivals. Explain how each of the following is likely to occur because of this rapid growth. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • water shortages in some local communities Award one mark for each of two valid comments, allowing a development point for additional amplification of a key point such as: More hotel rooms = more bath water/toilets/swimming pools/golf course (1) etc therefore shortages particularly in seasonal climates (1). • a change in the country's traditional employment structure Award one mark for each of two valid comments, allowing a development point for additional amplification of a key point such as: More visitors = more tourism staff (1) leave traditional jobs on land (1) – NB do credit candidates making reference to the TERTIARY rather than PRIMARY sector of employment. • the devaluing of local cultural traditions Award one mark for each of two valid comments, allowing a development point for additional amplification of a key point such as: More visitors = greater demand for shows/entertainment (1) and dances/traditional 'rituals' become performances devoid of their true cultural significance (1). 	6

(e)	With reference to one destination with which you are familiar, discuss the main features of the natural environment that appeal to leisure tourists. The natural environment of a destination will include the following aspects: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • location • climate • physical features – landscape • vegetation • wildlife Candidates may refer to any of the above (or just one) as long as it relates to an identifiable destination – otherwise the answer will be 4 max. We will NOT credit anything manmade. Use level of response criteria Level 1 (1–2 marks) will identify up to two appropriate aspects of the chosen destination's natural environment, providing some detail but will be mainly descriptive. Level 2 (3–4 marks) can be awarded for an analysis of selected natural environment aspects, clearly indicating suitability for tourist needs and/or requirements for at least two of these. Level 3 (5–6 marks) can be awarded for evaluative comment about selected aspects and this will probably be related to visitor attractiveness. The better answers will have a reasoned conclusion. Example: The Kruger National Park The Kruger National Park is the primary destination in South Africa for many international tourists. Established in 1898 to protect the wildlife of the South African Lowveld (L1), this national park of nearly 2 million hectares is unrivalled in the diversity of its life forms (L1). Kruger is home to an impressive number of species: 336 trees, 49 fish, 34 amphibians, 114 reptiles, 507 birds and 147 mammals (L2). There are no restricting fences between Game Reserves in the Kruger National Park, so exciting wildlife encounters in the open veld are always to be seen (L2). Many travellers regard a visit to South Africa as incomplete without having spotted, and perhaps photographed, the Big Five (L3). Originally used only by hunters, the term 'Big Five' refers to five of Africa's greatest wild animals – lion, leopard, elephant, buffalo and rhino. As during the bygone hunting era the term 'Big Five' still conjures up the romance and excitement of Africa's exotic destinations and experiences (L3).	6
3 (a)	Describe the main trends in the airline statistics shown in Fig. 3. The data involves passenger numbers and load factor. The command is simple description of the identifiable trends. Award one mark for the identification of an increase in both cases (even if this is made in same sentence) and then award a second mark for a development or amplification about each e.g. 7.9% and 2.2% annual increase respectively.	4	1.4(a)

3 (b)	Other than low fares, state three characteristic features of the service provided by low-cost budget airlines. Award one mark for the correct identification of each of three valid features of low-cost operations, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a single passenger class • a single type of aeroplane, commonly the Airbus A320 or Boeing 737 (reducing training and servicing costs), a simple fare scheme (typically fares increase as the plane fills up, which rewards early reservations) • unreserved seating (encouraging passengers to board early and quickly) • flying to cheaper, less congested secondary airports (avoiding air traffic delays and taking advantage of lower landing fees) • short flights and fast turnaround times (allowing maximum utilisation of planes) • simplified routes, emphasising point-to-point transit instead of transfers at hubs • emphasis on direct sales of tickets, especially over the Internet • employees working in multiple roles, for instance flight attendants also cleaning the aircraft or working as gate agents (limiting personnel costs) • 'free' in-flight catering and other 'complimentary' services are eliminated, and replaced by optional paid-for in-flight food and drink (which represent an additional profit source for the airline). 	3
3 (c)	For long journeys, many international travellers choose to fly with a full fare scheduled airline. Explain three ways in which passengers travelling in business class will enjoy advantages over those travelling in economy class. Award one mark for the identification of each of three valid advantages and then award a second mark for an appropriately explanatory comment about each. Scheduled carriers now offer a variety of facilities, both on the ground and in the air, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • private limo transfers (1) – a door to door service (1) • separate check-in (1) – less waiting (1) • first call for boarding (1) – less crowded (1) • lounge access (1) – ability to work in peace (1) • flat bed seat (1) – more comfort (1) • premium food and beverage service (1) – choice (1) • higher staff ratio (1) – better in-flight service (1). Credit all valid reasoning.	6	4.4(a)

(d)	Explain three in-flight services that full fare scheduled airlines usually provide for the benefit of younger passengers on long-haul flights. Award one mark for the identification of each of three valid services and award a second mark for each if appropriately explained. (e)	Discuss the reasons why it is important for airline cabin crew to work as a team. A team is simply defined as a limited number of people who have shared objectives at work and who co-operate, on a permanent or temporary basis, to achieve those objectives in a way that allows each individual to make a distinctive contribution. In this case, airline crews, who may be formed from people who have rarely worked together but, through prior training, must clearly understand their respective roles. Teamwork is important for airline efficiency in delivering services and benefits include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • improved productivity • improved quality of products or services • improved customer focus • increase in spread of ideas • increased employee motivation • allows multi-skilling and employee flexibility. Use level of response criteria Level 1 (1–2 marks) will identify up to two appropriate types of reason, providing some detail but will be mainly descriptive. Level 2 (3–4 marks) can be awarded for an analysis of selected reasons, clearly indicating how customer/provider needs are being met. Level 3 (5–6 marks) can be awarded for evaluative comment about the significance/importance of particular reasons. The better answers will have a reasoned conclusion. Example: Cabin crew work in teams for many reasons: the main ones are safety, efficiency (L1) and delivering a level of service suitable for the class of travel (L1). Some jobs during the flight require working in pairs and this makes meal service more efficient (L2), one member plating hot dishes and the other passing trays (L2). Teamwork is most important when service trolleys block the aisles and crew members nearest the galley will pass fresh supplies to colleagues, without the need to disrupt service (L3). Such adaptations benefit both passengers and crew (L3).	6	3.1(b)

	(b)	Briefly explain why the daily exchange rate available to tourists will often vary between different foreign exchange offices/bureaux. This has NOTHING to do with currency fluctuation, it is about PROFIT. Candidates are expected to know that provision of foreign exchange is an ancillary service and different providers will set their own margins. Award one mark for each of three valid statements, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exchange provided by Banks, Travel Agencies and Exchange companies. • Each set their own rate for the day. • Larger amounts may warrant a better rate. • Some may charge commission. • Those who do not may reduce the rate on offer etc. 	3	3.4(d)

(f)	Not all tourists will want to stay in 4/5* hotels. For one destination with which you are familiar, discuss the range of 'budget' or low cost accommodation that is available. We can accept any destination and the candidate is expected to be aware of the existence of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 3* or less hotels • self-catering apartments • guest houses/B&B • youth hostels • camp sites • caravan parks etc. However, points made must be destination-specific otherwise 4 max will apply. Use level of response criteria Level 1 (1–2 marks) will identify up to two appropriate aspects of the chosen destination's budget accommodation, providing some detail but will be mainly descriptive. Level 2 (3–4 marks) can be awarded for an analysis of selected types, clearly indicating suitability for tourist needs and/or requirements for at least two of these. Level 3 (5–6 marks) can be awarded for evaluative comment about provision and this will probably be related to visitor needs/suitability. The better answers will have a reasoned conclusion. Example: Cape Town Cape Town guest houses and lodges (L1) are an ideal alternative to staying at the more expensive hotels in the area. Meals besides breakfast are often available (dinner and/or lunch) usually on request (L2). Many of the services offered at hotels can be expected, such as airport transfers, wake-up calls and laundry service (L2). Bed and Breakfasts (L1) are usually less expensive than hotels and often offer the same standard of accommodation. Staying at a B&B gives you the opportunity to live as a local (L2) and enjoy the advice of your hosts as these establishments are usually owner-managed (L2). All types of traveller are catered for in Cape Town and The Tourism Grading Council evaluates those establishments which apply for grading and grades them 1 to 5 stars, according to the type of accommodation provided – hotels, lodges, B&B, self-catering, caravan parks and camping and backpackers (L3).	6
