Question 1

Refer to Fig. 1, a news item about tourism in São Paulo, Brazil.

São Paulo, Brazil, never saw so many tourists: 11 million

São Paulo, Brazil's largest city and the main economic hub in the country, received 11 million tourists in 2009, 2.8% higher than recorded in 2008. São Paulo received 9.3 million Brazilian tourists and 1.7 million foreigners in 2009. Visitors spent US$3.5 billion, which is 2.5% more than in 2008.

The main reasons for foreigners' visits were:

- business (57.2%)
- visits to relatives and friends (20.7%)
- leisure (13.6%).

The main reason for domestic tourism was to visit relatives and friends. These domestic visitors mainly use buses to come to the city, followed by aircraft and their own cars. The average spending was US$408 per domestic tourist and the month in which the greatest number of tourists came was December.

In the hotel sector, the average occupation was 68.5% in 2009. The average daily spend in hotel fees was US$68.

Question 2

Refer to Fig. 2, a news item about Mauritius' tourism in 2009.

Mauritius' tourism receipts down

Mauritius saw an 18% decline in tourism receipts in the first half of 2009 as the global economic downturn discouraged visitors. Mauritius, which is best known for its azure waters, white beaches and luxury spas, has run an aggressive international marketing campaign while its hotels have offered big discounts as the country tries to maintain market share.

Arrivals from Europe fell by 6.9%, led by a 19.1% decline in German arrivals, a 14.3% decline in Italian arrivals and a 6.9% fall in visitors from Britain. France, which is Mauritius' leading market, was the exception with a 2.0% increase.

LAPLAND TRAVEL

2 Day Lapland Tour

This tour is based in the traditional Lapland resort of Suomu, part of a wilderness region of natural forests, streams and lakes.

Day 1 Depart from your chosen airport to Rovaniemi Airport where you will be transferred to Suomu. After collecting your overgarments and boots you will be able to settle in at your hotel or cabin. Join us for some snowgames in the evening.

Day 2 The search for Santa Claus will commence with a transfer by skidoo and sleigh to a secret location where many activities await you. Try the gentle reindeer sleigh ride or the thrill of the husky ride. Drive a snowmobile and meet Santa Claus to discuss your Christmas wishes. After lunch at Suomu, we will visit a small theme park located underground, close to the Arctic Shopping Centre where we will also stop to buy souvenirs prior to your flight back home.
