CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL EXAMINATIONS Pre-U Certificate

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2013 series

9777 GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES & INDEPENDENT RESEARCH

9777/02

Paper 2 (Essay), maximum raw mark 30

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2013 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

- The assessment objectives (AOs) are to some extent inter-dependent and the essays should be marked holistically using the level-based mark scheme below.
- Examiners should look at each section of the level descriptors. If all are solidly attained for a level, the top mark for the level is to be awarded. Descriptors describe the top mark of each level.
- There will frequently be some aspects of the answer which fall within a level and some within the level below. Examiners should award a lower mark in the higher band according to this balance. All marking will be positive. Examiners will use the full range of marks and look for the 'best fit', not a 'perfect fit'.
- There is no requirement for candidates to use technical Critical Thinking terms to access any level and candidates will not be rewarded for their use unless they are directly linked to the demands of the question.
- Essays should be between 1750 and 2000 words, excluding the list of reference. Examiners will not credit material after the 2000 word limit.
- Each essay must be accompanied by a signed cover sheet (please notify the Examiners' Helpdesk if it is missing).

4	24–30	The essay is logically structured and explores the issues effectively , fully and concisely without being too brief. A range relevant sources is used, cited and fully referenced.
		There are at least two relevant and contrasting global perspectives stated and explained, using globally contrasting sources.
		There is effective selection and critical use of relevant evidence so that the relationship between sources, perspectives and wider context is clear .
		The argument is fully developed with the premises challenged appropriately. The perspectives and sources are critically evaluated .
		The essay considers the implications and consequences of each perspective and, through reflection, reaches a convincing, balanced and supported conclusion.
		The limitations of the evidence are fully recognised and the need for further research is suggested and its likely impact is assessed .
